

SPRING FACE

RMIT University student Jacquie Alexander has been named the face of Melbourne Spring Fashion Week. In her role, the first-year student will represent the Fashion Week and the City of Melbourne.

Alexander has already achieved considerable success as a fashion designer, under her self-titled label being stocked in more than 50 boutiques across Australia, and sold internationally, via boutiques in the United Kingdom, Germany, Russia and the United Arab Emirates.

Pretty in pink

The Spring Summer 2007 collection of Verduci-Smith continues an approach of luxurious and individualistic dressing. The designs encompass femininity, strength, beauty, evoking a sense of place and spirit. Verduci-Smith can be found nationally with prices ranging from $200- $700.
