Utimes and Sony Pictures are giving away ten double passes to the Geg Mottola's new teenager romp, Superbad. The film tells the story of Evan and Seth, two socially inept teenagers. Since childhood they have formed a grossly interdependent friendship. Preparing to leave high school, they are forced to contemplate life apart from each other for the first time. Evan (Michael Cera) is sweet, smart and generally terrified. Seth (Jonah Hill) who will be going to a state university is foul-mouthed, volatile, and obsessed with sex. Superbad's director Greg Mottola was responsible for The 40-Year-Old Virgin and Knocked up.

For the chance to win send an email titled "WIN SUPERBAD" to win@utimes.com.au by September 18. Also tell us your name and where you study. You'll need to collect your prize from the Utimes office in Richmond. Q

Superbad is in cinemas from September 20

think you know
Melbourne ... ?
Prove it!

University vs University Faculty vs Faculty

University (including TAFE/College) teams of between 2 and 6 people will use a map, clue sheet and mobile phone to unlock the mysteries of Melbourne. Can your team triumph over our Mensa team of question setters?! And if that doesn't cut the mustard, the Barry Jones Brain Buster will challenge even the most prolific of intellectual giants.

There's a swag of ace gear to be won, including a Myer entertainment system package worth $5,000. At an entry cost of little more than the cost of a pint of imported ale, you can Romp your socks off and sleep soundly in the knowledge that all proceeds from the Romp go to Burnet Institute's medical research and public health programs in Australia and abroad.
