A funky new gallery, in.cube8r is open to anyone who makes things by hand. in.cube8r has been created to support all things craft, art and hand-made in Melbourne. in.cube8r runs like a long term market, the gallery divided into glass cubicles, shelves, racks and partitions which artists can lease for a small weekly cost, as low as $20 per week (includes insurance, advertising, handling and supervision) over a three month time span. No commission and no other fees, it's a fabulous way to gauge the market, find your feet in the marketplace and it looks great on a resume and website.
