

Inspiring fashion

RMIT fashion students are celebrating the success of their recent Les Createurs parade at Melbourne's Town Hall.

Close to 1,000 people attended the parade, which showcased garments and a multimedia presentation designed by fourth-year students from RMIT's Bachelor of Design (Fashion) program.

A wide variety of work was shown including elegant women's wear, exploratory men's wear, street wear, conceptual and theatrical collections.

Kylie Varty's collection, called Optical Babysuit, found inspiration in the visual illusions of artist M.C. Escher and fellow student Makiko Fukuda showcased dresses that were sublime and elegant.
