

UK live-in jobs

Demand for Aussies to work in England is high. Xavier of www.ukliveinjobs.com.au says "businesses realise value in employing backpackers because they bring enthusiasm with an adventurous attitude". It seems punters agree, with hundreds of UK pubs choosing Australian staff to pull pints. "It's ideal", says Xavier, "pubs get friendly staff and backpackers have a place to live with a ready-made social group". London has been the traditional destination of working holidaymakers but increasing numbers are doing something different. Lifestyles in the Midlands and north of England are cheaper, there are good work opportunities and travellers can experience real English culture.

Hassle free work in UK

How do I get a visa, where can I get the best flights and once I'm there what do I do now? There is so much to organise and for a newbie backpacker it can all be a bit overwhelming not to mention time consuming. OZ 2 UK Jobs can take the guesswork out of your first trip. They offer to find you a job with live in accommodation at a lively and fun pub restaurant in the UK. Whether it be in the bar, restaurant or even as a chef they have a great range of positions. Check out www.oz2ukjobs.com.au.

Teach International

Imagine working a few hours and then sunning yourself for the afternoon on a sandy white beach in Rio de Janeiro! Or heading out on a Friday after work to experience the fabulous sights and sounds of Bangkok's nightlife. Or climbing the Great Wall of China on the weekend with a group of friends from work. If this sounds good to you, maybe you should consider becoming a teacher of English and join the thousands of other Australians around the world who are having the time of their lives teaching English as a foreign language – get paid to travel and experience another culture. ## INSTANT TRAVEL INSURANCE

Planning to Travel This Summer? Take a look of some the main advantages of travel insurance from insure4less...

- Always close to the heart of a student: it's cheap. Special online rates and a wide variety of options mean that you can find the best deal to suit your particular budget.
- We're accessible: a 24/7 medical emergency helpline, provided by one of the world's leading travel insurance assistance companies, means you're always close to help, whenever you need it.
- We cater for working holidays: If you plan on working overseas, insure4less will provide automatic coverage of non-manual, non-hazardous work (like bar work, nursing, fruit picking, an office job etc)
- We cover most adventure activities: sports enthusiasts will be happy to know that there's free cover of cool amateur sports and activities you're ever likely to do, like bungee jumping, scuba diving and even tandem skydiving – the kind of spontaneous leaps we often take when travelling.
- We include cover for terrorist acts: terrorism knows no boundaries, and attacks can happen at any time, with innocent bystanders getting caught in the fray. In a situation like that, far away from home, it's essential to have backup, and with insure4less you'll have full medical cover in the event of such an attack.
