

Awards night

Melbourne University Student Union's Annual Cabaret and Awards night was held last month. This year saw the best and the worst in trash-glam fashion strutting its stuff on the pre-show red carpet along with a new award for best outfit of the evening. Congratulations MU Shakespeare Company and director Becc Ferretti for taking out 2007 Production of the Year – a deconstructed Romeo and Juliet.

Band Finale

Over 300 people turned up at Northcote Social Club, for the finals of the National Campus Band Competition. Will Stoker and the Embers (pictured) from Curtin University, WA took out first prize. Second place went to Rubycon from the ACT and third place was a tie between Victorian band, Aysu Souls and Room One from SA. www.aaca.net.au

Debutantes

The Inaugural TAFE Debutante and Formal Ball was hosted by Swinburne at Rembrandts in Wantirna. Three months in the making, students worked hard organising a range of fundraising events to make the night more affordable for everyone. Swinburne TAFE's Croydon campus has forged a reputation for providing alternative study programs and support for students outside the mainstream. www.tafe.swinburne.edu.au
