

New Year fun

The New Year came in with a bang at Geelong's New Year on the Waterfront

Party

Come and ring in the new academic year with a party at one of the best venues in the city. Guests will be treated to free gift bags, limited complimentary drinks and will be entertained by the 'Spin It' competition winner. Limited tickets available from the University of Melbourne Information Centre.
Tickets: $10 members, $20 members' guests
 Wednesday February 28, 7pm-11pm
 Three Degrees, Number 1 QV, Melbourne

Band

Everybody's favourite ex-University of Melbourne band, Vasco Era are back and ready to create a heady, heavy, summer music festival experience just for you.

Tuesday February 27, 1-2pm
 North Court, ground floor, Union House.

RMIT Orientation

RMIT Carlton campus Orientation Day earlier this month was full of fun and information. Photos supplied by RMIT.

Cinema

Grab a rug to sit on, a few friends to hang out with and come down to North Court for the film Kenny (pictured), a BBQ and a good time. Free for Uni of Melbourne Members, $2 for non-members.

Thursday February 29, 8pm
 (film from when it's dark)
 North Court, Union House, Uni of Melbourne.

Night of style

Nestled down a stunning Melbourne city laneway, a night of style and class was enjoyed at eleven-a.

Survival

Adjusting to university life can be tough. Coping with the demands of study, making new friends, and for many living out of home for the first time can take their toll on first year uni students. Student Survival Week encourages students to take advantage of the free services and support available to them on campus in order to achieve a smooth transition to university life.

March 18-20
