

Bargain shopping

“Nothing beats finding a designer label at half price”

Always keep an eye out for a bargain. It's exhilarating to pick up a pair of Dior sunnies at an op-shop for $1. Opportunity shops are great places to find a bargain.

Most sell a huge range of furniture, clothes and accessories, books, CDs and DVDs, shoes, sporting equipment and some even sell electronics.

Other places to watch out for are the bargain bins and sales racks. Nothing beats walking into a store and finding a designer label at half price.

For example, surf and skate stores charge big bucks for a simple singlet or t-shirt. The fashions have stayed quite similar over the last 18 months, so why not buy a marked down item?

There will be a 'new' replica of it back on the shelves within a month.

Another place to look for a bargain is at the markets.

Whether it's cheap food, jewellery, clothes or a bunch of flowers, markets offer a wide variety of bargains.

Markets also offer a great Saturday or Sunday morning activity, browsing the stalls with some mates and having a coffee.

Give bargain hunting a go. Who knows what's waiting!

Laura Timberlake

 utimes

Marketing students

Need a real workplace assignment?

You can help Utimes and submit a great project!

We are providing an opportunity for you to analyse Utimes as a real case study to complement your studies and enhance your CV.

We are open to project suggestions and they may include such ideas as reader surveys, developing marketing strategies or improving local campus distribution of the newspaper.

We can't pay for work done, but can provide guidance on developing the project from start to finish as well as a genuine work experience opportunity.

If you would like to discuss this opportunity further, please contact the managing editor, Bill Calder on 9421 3177 ext 9 or bill@utimes.com.au.

baroni MOTOR SCOOTERS
www.baroni.com.au

Brilliant Baroni Motor Scooters from $1,899

Mad March Sale

Free with all Baroni Scooters sold before March 31:

X Speed Helmet – Value $229

R Jays Voyager II Jacket – Value $149

C & R Gloves – Value $49

Total Value Extras - $427.00

Log onto our website for scooter specifications and your closest dealer.

www.baroni.com.au