

Put your nursing career into top gear!

Final year nursing student?
Keen to get ahead of the pack?
Want to get your nursing career
off to a flying start?

Then grab pole position and apply for the 2009 Graduate Nurse Program at Royal District Nursing Service (RDNS).

As one of Australia's most respected home nursing organisations, a graduate position at RDNS will propel you down a road crammed with clinical challenges, wonderful friendships and deep personal fulfilment.

With a preceptor to guide you through the 12 month program, you will care for people in their own homes and enjoy a world of autonomy, holistic nursing and professional development.

Begin your journey today by enquiring about RDNS' Graduate Nurse Program.

The program starts in February 2009.
