Sick of the same grip colour or need a replacement of an old dirty one?

If you are a cricket player, you should know how hard and frustrating each time to pull the grip down to the right spot.

How many times have you sworn trying to change an old dirty bat grip?

Well, it has never been easier to get rid of an old age sticky cricket bat grip to a new fresh color style. Epic Sport, Australian owned and designed has invented a new cricket bat grip changer called The Squid.

With a low price and easy to use The Squid is a hassle
