

Just a bit more study

Postgraduate study offers the lure of a better future, but it's no walk across the lawn. You need a plan to survive the pressures of financial, workload and relationship strain.

DEAKIN
UNIVERSITY

Have you considered an Honours degree?

Deakin's Bachelor of Arts (Honours) program will provide intellectual stimulation, academic achievement and personal enrichment. Enhance your future career prospects in a broad range of occupations, and get an edge for the job of your dreams. You'll undertake study at a higher level than your undergraduate degree both in your honours coursework units and through research for your thesis.

Am I eligible?

You must have successfully completed a Bachelor of Arts undergraduate degree or equivalent, and have results that indicate you are capable of undertaking an honours program in your undergraduate major sequence.

Honours areas of study include dance, drama, media and communication, film and digital media, visual arts, literary studies, professional and creative writing, anthropology, criminology, history, sociology, international and political studies, and philosophy.

Visit www.deakin.edu.au/arts-ed/courses/honours or email enquire@deakin.edu.au and find out how you can add more to your degree.

The difference is Deakin ARTS
