

Our Olympic contingent

Victorian students will be well represented at the Beijing Olympic Games so keep an eye out for the ones listed below (apologies for anyone we missed)

Kyle Davis

RMIT
Deferred his Bachelor of Social Science (Psychology) to focus on his table tennis.

Kim Crow

Melbourne
Law/Media Communications student, will be competing in rowing's pair alongside partner Sarah Cook.

Angela Darby

Melbourne
In her second year of a Bachelor of Architecture, Australia's sole female representative in Modern Pentathlon.

Sarah Tait

Melbourne
Studying Natural Resource Management and will be competing in rowing's eight.

Dennis Iverson

VU
Second year of a Bachelor of Education has qualified for the Australian Judo team.

Ali Abdo

vu
In his fourth year of a five-year Masters in Osteopathy and wrestling in Beijing.

Catherine Arlove

Monash
Second-year law student lining up for her third and final tilt at Olympic gold in Judo.

Erin Carroll

vu
Third-year Bachelor of Applied Science student in Physical Education was named to the six-person Australian Olympic badminton team.

Jessica Walters

Monash
First-year Arts/Science student in the shadow Olympic squad for archery

Liyong Toh

Monash
Biomedical Science student in the Singaporean team for sailing.

Christopher Mullins

La Trobe
Will represent Australia in Athletics at the Beijing Paralympics

Tarren Otte

vu
Studying to be a secondary school sports teacher she is part of the first Australian synchronised swim team to qualify for an overseas Olympics.

Tania Luiz

vu
Studying a double Bachelor's degree in Marketing and Psychology and part of Australia's women's badminton team.

Danni Di Toro

vu
Wheelchair tennis at Beijing Paralympics, then in November, she receives her Bachelor of Chinese Medicine.

Madeleine Hogan

Deakin
Selected on the track and field team for the Paralympics.

Richard Colman

Deakin
Selected on the track and field team for the Paralympics.

David Zalberg

Monash
Fifth-year medical student in the men's singles and team table tennis.

Jeff Riseley

Deakin
Psychology student competing in the 1500m.

Madeleine Pape

RMIT
Also pictured on the front cover of this month's Utimes, the third year Bachelor of International Studies student will be running in the 800m.

WANNA CHANGE CRICKET BAT GRIP IN 20 SECONDS??

Check out video instruction

if your answer is "YES", then use The SQUID®

- > The SQUID® is a new grip changer invented by EPIC SPORT.
- > No more suffering with impossible to use grip cones (stop swearing!).
- > THE SQUID® is fitted correctly every time.
- > You can change it yourself at an affordable price (why pay someone else?)
- > It is an only cricket bat grip changer that does not stretch grips.
- > Re-usable of course!

FREE >> an extra grip when you order online.

GREAT VALUE
The package includes 2 quality colour-grips and 1 SQUID. Change grip colour for every game.

www.epic-sport.com or Youtube <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zepRtH6JHNA>