ARIES You will write for a pretentious arty uni magazine that will love your twisted post-modernist adaptation of The Wizard of Oz. Everyone else will just be confused..

TAURUS Under a thrifty new Moon, you will find a great bargain on Ebay, but be disappointed when the shipping costs from Lithuania increase the cost by $1000.

GEMINI You will get ridiculously drunk and discover the meaning of life while listening to Daft Punk in the dark. Book deals and an appearance on Oprah ensue.

CANCER A take home exam will prove too difficult, and you will pay an older student to do it for you. This will backfire when you discover that they don't do your course and just stayed on at uni to smoke pot and spread the socialist alternative.

LEO You will visit an op shop and buy a jacket, which will have thousands of dollars sewn into the lining. Unfortunately they will be New Zealand dollars, and your spending spree will consist of a round of 50 cent cones at McDonalds.

VIRGO The government will hire you as a top-secret computer analyst when they discover you are the only person who can understand and work the bizarrely complicated new Facebook.

LIBRA An adventurous Jupiter incites you to get in shape and hire a personal trainer. You will confess your love for them, but get a nasty injury when you try and make out on the Stairmaster.

SCORPIO Under a crafty Venus you will get illegal cable, but be disappointed to discover it was a Russian propaganda network rather than the channel that screens Gossip Girl.

SAGITTARIUS You will win a walk on role in an American soap opera, then win an award for your ability to stare off thoughtfully into the distance.

CAPRICORN You will plan to go on an 'end of season' trip to an exotic location. You will be angered when you discover that instead of Waikiki you will be heading to Wodonga, as your friends spent the majority of your budget on beer and barbeque shapes.

AQUARIUS Lucky Aquarians will win big at blackjack at the casino. They will subsequently lose even bigger on the very next hand.

PISCES You will become obsessed with a new type of cereal, which leads you to spend a stint in rehab and sadly have to eat toast for breakfast for the rest of your life.
