

Big line-up for V Festival

“Akin to a life changing experience”

To reassure those who thought V Festival had gone “all new”, they can now confirm that Madness will make their long awaited return to Australia, along with new wave legends, The Human League who will treat audiences with a start to finish live performance of their landmark album Dare, plus more of their classic tunes.

Off the back of their sellout January dates, Razorlight have confirmed their return to satisfy all those who missed out on their fantastic live performance, and also those wanting some more.

Transatlantic two-piece The Kills and french electro outfit M83 further bolster the alternative core of the Festival bill, and being introduced to Australia is the sultry sounds of Rilo Kiley chanteuse Jenny Lewis. Aussie ex-pats Howling Bells will return to play their first shows in a while in support of their anticipated new album, Radio Wars.

V Festival is growing and able to confirm the establishment of a fourth stage, courtesy of Virgin Mobile, which will feature 100% Australian fare. The Virgin Mobile Stage will be headlined by Jackson Jackson, whose 10 piece live ensemble is fast gaining a reputation for being akin to a life changing experience.

They join the already announced artists: The Killers, Snow Patrol, Kaiser Chiefs, Duffy, Elbow, The Do, Tame Impala, The Temper Trap and Canyons.

You can catch them in Melbourne at the Showgrounds, Saturday April 4.

Tickets available at all Ticketmaster outlets. Q
