Jet

Shaka Rock

EMI

Jet will release their highly anticipated Shaka Rock on August 21. After four million albums sold worldwide, a Number 1 and 9x platinum selling album in Australia with Get Born, four Top Ten Modern Rock and Rock hits in the US (including the Number 1 Cold Hard Bitch), Jet have returned to form with an album that parallels their smash, Get Born.

Shaka Rock captures the charisma and energy of classic rock and roll with just enough punk swagger and contemporary flair to create something uniquely Jet.

Fruit Bats

The Ruminant Band

Stomp

Over the course of three records, Eric D. Johnson's Fruit Bats have looked for ways to file down the cynical edge of modern life and found many. Using bright melodies, defiantly major-key chord structures, natural imagery mixed with the occasional blazing insight and tender observation, the Fruit Bats have never shied away from darkness, but more uncommon in this day and age, they've refused to shy away from light. With The Ruminant Band, this tradition continues in characteristically rich and involving fashion.

From the barn-floor stomp of "The Hobo Girl" and the Fleetwood Mac-esque shimmy of the title track to the propulsive yet spacious 70s country-rock jam "Tegucigalpa" and the parlour piano soft-shoe of "Flamingo," The Ruminant Band makes good.

Paul Dempsey

Everything Is True

EMI

The release of Paul Dempsey's long anticipated debut solo album Everything Is True is just around the corner on August 14. Everything Is True includes eleven self penned songs that see Dempsey stretching himself to play every instrument on the album. The album was recorded earlier this year in a studio on the NSW Central Coast.

La Roux

La Roux

Universal

Ladies and gentlemen, please take your seats, for the show is about to begin. 'The red haired one' will now start making electro-pop mean something again. Elly Jackson is 20-years-old, she has a short ginger bob, freckles, a nose that makes your heart turn to a puddle, but more importantly a way with melodies that makes everything else around you completely vanish. The Brixtonite's experiencing all the things girls of that age tend to; heartbreak, frustration, wonderment, invincibility and fragility. But unlike most girls her age, Elly has a staggering ability to channel all these feelings and experiences into wondrous blasts of crystal-clean ear candy that hit the listener with instant resonance.
