“Safe guard your shipment of unaccompanied baggage”

When sending your valued possessions both nationally or internationally, you need to use a company you can trust.

Seven Seas Worldwide are known for offering competitively priced door-to-door national and international shipping services for unaccompanied baggage.

Their prices enjoy the benefits of operating their own international shipping network: deep knowledge of the shipping process in each country and a streamlined process.

Seven Seas Worldwide are the largest shipper of unaccompanied baggage in the world providing economies of scale.

Seven Seas Worldwide have committed themselves to protecting you from unnecessary costs and prides themselves in safe guarding your shipment of unaccompanied baggage to its destination. They promise to provide the highest possible customer service to you, every time. Seven Seas Worldwide continually invest in new technologies and systems to provide further benefits to customers.

Seven Seas Worldwide are the first international excess baggage shipping company to provide time slots for delivery, collection and re-delivery of shipments as well as customer contact centre operating 24 hours, seven days a week with global tracking of shipments around the world.

They provide on-line quotes, ordering empty cartons and arranging of collection of your shipment, with multi lingual staff and free one month storage for international bookings.
