Excess baggage

Professional Freight Services (PFS) has celebrated 20 strong years in the handling of international students' excess baggage. Their vans are like 'Mobile Offices' and call at a residence, the baggage weighed on electronic scales and all the paperwork completed. Approximately seven days later, your goods will be at destination. An IATA accredited agent, with very competitive rates on both airfreight and seafreight services. With the ever growing number of students from the Middle East, PFS now have staff with Arabic speaking skills as well as Cantonese. Visit pfs.net.au under 'International Students' to see the full range of services.

Become ISIC-a-holic

If you're a student or a teacher and you are looking to continuously save whether you are at home or heading off overseas, then consider becoming an ISIC-a-holic – the global student ID card to a world of discounts and benefits. The card gives you over 41,000 discounts in 120 countries ranging from discounts on flights, public transport, shopping, entertainment, museums, clubs, restaurants and lots more, so the $25 you pay for the card can pay for itself in no time. isiccard.com.au
