

Real experience

Does the idea of traveling the world appeal to you? Imagine partying at Rio Carnival, bottle-feeding lion cubs in South Africa before relaxing on a beach in Thailand? Forget just being a tourist – traveling these days can be a unique and life-changing experience. With Real Gap Experience, you can find paid work overseas, volunteer in the local communities, learn a new language and still have plenty of time to meet interesting new people and work on your tan. Volunteering or working overseas is also held in high regard by employers.

Moving around

When sending your valued possessions both nationally or internationally, you need to use a company you can trust. Seven Seas Worldwide are known for offering competitively priced door-to-door shipping services for unaccompanied baggage. They operate their own international shipping network: deep knowledge of the shipping process in each country and a streamlined process. Seven Seas Worldwide are the largest shipper of unaccompanied baggage in the world providing economies of scale. They provide on-line quotes, ordering empty cartons and arranging of collection of your shipment, with multi lingual staff and free one month storage for international bookings.

Join the world

Join the world and be part of the many thousands that participate in AIFS programs. Become more than a tourist and choose a life fulfilling experience. Be an American camp counselor or an au pair in America and if you are a full time student, work and travel across the USA on the work adventures program. If you want to visit other destinations, then choose to volunteer in one of seven different countries in Asia, Europe or South America. So come on board and immerse yourself in the cultures of world.
